Buckingham Board Supervisors received $64,113 for $60,000 school bonds last week. The bonds are issued to take care of the school debt.

"If democracy had evolved nothing more than the institute of a free press, it would have justified itself as the world's greatest political discovery."—Gov. Ritchie, of Md.

In addition, a man's political and religious freedom is guaranteed by the Federal Constitution, but there are many who lack courage in expressing their political freedom.

It is announced that the great County of Pittsylvania is to ho'd a democratic primary. If we remember that county polled a large majority against the democratic nominee for State Treasurer Purcell. How can these irregulars vote in a party primary under that foolish law—"that a man must have voted for all the nominees in last general election." It's dollars to cents there will be no challenging.

Dr. P. E. Tucker former candidate for the House of Delegates from the Appomattox and Buckingham district has withdrawn from the race on account of illness in his family. He asks that his friends may join him in voting for D. M. Gannaway, who announced his candidacy in this paper some time ago for the office. On general principles it seems that Appomattox is again conceding the Delegates to Buckingham.

All candidates for office will be treated fairly and with the utmost courtesy at this office by the editor and the employees. All we ask is that you will not speak unkindly of any candidate and pay the regular price all candidates pay for space. The TIMES-VIRGINIAN being the only paper in the county we invite all candidates to use its columns on equal terms. The editor has his favorite candidates but the TIMES-VIRGINIAN has none and unless unforseen developments occur which would force us to speak our convictions on such developements.

Is There One Law For Native and One For Outsider?

The verdict rendered in the Reavis case Saturday afternoon raises a question: Was the accused man tried by jury or by public opinion? Was he convicted of being a murderer or an outsider?

He was aroused at night by noisy calls in his yard. He concluded the visitors were drunk and he let them alone. Some of them came to his house and shook his blinds, making threats against him. He repeatedly warned them to go away or he would shoot. They paid no heed. Finally, to frighten them off, as he insists, he fired one shot. The noise ceased. Later, hearing other sounds, he notified the deputy sheriff. When that officer arrived, he found a young man dead in the yard. No proof was offered that Dr. Reavis had any quarrell with his victim, who was known to have been drinking that day. No direct evidence was offered to contradict any part of the physician's story. The body of the slain man was lying inside the Reavis property. All the circumstances corroborated the contention that the elderly man had done precisely what he testified on the stand, and that he had done it in fear of his life. Yet he was given ten years in the penitentiary.

Would anything like this penalty have been imposed if, as the commonwealth's attorney stated in his address to the jury, the doctor had not come uninvited from Indiana and settled in Goochland? Would the verdic have been the same if a popular man, a member of a powerful local family, had shot the doctor for threatening him at night? It is for the court to answer. If the trial judge does not set aside the verdict at the June term of the Goochland circuit court, the case must be carried to the court of appeals for review. And if the accused physician has not the funds for this, they should be provided by popular subscription. Virginia must never let suspicion be raised in any mind that she has one law for the strong and another for the weak, one law for the native and another for the stranger.—News Leader.

Juries often make mistakes, and yet the verdict of juries should and does carry great weight with reviewing courts. We submit that the qualifications of jurors should be, in the main, men and women of the highest type, independent in thought and of courage.

Statement of the Ownership, Management, Circulation, Etc, Required by the Act of Congress of August 24, 1912

Of The Times-Virginian published weekly at Appomattox, Va., for Apr 1, 1927.

STATE OF VIRGINIA
} ss
County of Appomattox, Va.

Before me a Notary Public, in and for the State and county aforesaid, personally appeared A. H. Clement, who, having been duly sworn according to law, deposes and says that he is the owner and editor of The Times-Virginian and that the following is, to the best of knowledge and belief, a true statement of the ownership, management etc., of the aforesaid publication for the date shown in the above caption, required by the Act of August 24, 1912, embodied in sections 411, Postal Laws and Regulations, printed on the reverse of this form, to-wit:

1 That the name and address of the publisher, editor, and business manager is A. H. Clement, of Appomattox, Va.

2 That the owner is A. H. Clement, of Appomattox, Va.

3 That the known bondholders, mortgages, and other securitiy holders owning or holding 1 per cent or more of total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities are none.

4 That the two paragraphs next above giving the name of the owners, stockholders, and security holders, if any, contain not only the list of stockholders and security holders, as they appear upon the books of the company but also, in cases where the stockholder or security holder appears upon the books of the company as trustee or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing affiants full knowledge and belief as to the circumstances and conditions under which stockholders and security holders who do not appear upon the books of the company as trustees, hold stock and securities in a capacity other than that of a bona fide owner; and this affiant has no reason to believe that any other person, association or corporation has any interest direct or indirect in the said stock, bonds, or other securities than associated by him.

A. H. Clement, Owner.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 25th day of April 1926.

New Goodyear Value

For Ford and Chevrolet Owners

Goodyear has developed a Balloon Tire tread which matches the Goodyear Balloon carcass of Supertwist Cord.

It is the famous Goodyear All-Weather Tread scientifically redesigned for Balloon Tire use.

The sharp-edged, diamond-shaped blocks are placed in a semi-flat design. These blocks grip the road and retain their usefulness longer than any tread heretofore offered.

Long, slow, even tread wear is assured. "Cupping" and uneven wear, so common to many Balloon Tires, are practically eliminated.

Come in and see this new Goodyear Balloon Tire.

Fire destroyed the manufacturing plant of Mr. J. A. Young at Evergreen Saturday. About 20,000 ft. manufactured lumber was destroyed with much machinery. His loss will reach $1000 with no insurance. He has not decided whether he will rebuild or not.

Treasurer Burke reports a heavy payment on poll tax—probably 2300 people will be qualified to vote in the primary. Registrars will set from sun rise to sun set at each precinct in the county to register new voters on the third Tuesday in May, 17th day. A large number of ladies will be registered. The law is not certain but you can register any time. Do it now.

Rev. Dr. John Lowe, a missionary statesman of the first rank will speak at Liberty Baptist Church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Dr. Lowe was for many years a missionary in China and it is expected that he will speak on the situation in China. His address will undoubtedly be both informing and inspiring. He was one of the favorite speakers at the recent meetings of the Southern Baptist Convention, Louisville. All are cordially invited to hear him.

"WHO'S WHO" IN LYNCHBURG

Attention of the readers of THE TIMES-VIRGINIAN is called to the "Who's Who" in Lynchburg page in today's issue. Thirty-four business firms are inviting the people of Appomattox to attend the Retail Merchants and American Legion during the coming week.

Readers are asked to tell who these merchants are. The reader of the paper residing outside of Lynchburg who submits the best set of answers will be awarded $15.00 for the trouble incurred.

The plan of the contest is fully explained at the top of the page.

Big Day at Vera

A beautiful health and May Day program was given in the Vera School, Thursday, May 5th.

A bountiful dinner served by the patrons of the school about 12:30, was enjoyed by all. After this we enjoyed an informal social hour.

The program proper began at 2:30, Rev. S. B. Tucker offered the opening prayer after which we were entertained by the pupils. The lovely May Pole Dance was given and several health playlets which were instructive as well as beautiful. The boys and girls rendered their parts well and the costumes were appropriate and pretty. Surely each parent and pupil returned home with a determination to raise the health standard of the Vera School.

Our Supt. Mr. J. A. Burke made an excellent address on health after which he delivered a State certificate to the following:

Five Point Pupils, thus certifying that each passed a satisfactory examination on vision, hearing, teeth, throat, and weight—Rachel Morris, Elizabeth Harris, Inez Harris, Hilda Abbitt, William Carter, Albert O'Brien, Twyman Conner, Herbert Abbitt, and Billy Covington.

Let us begin now to remedy the defects so that next year Vera School may have many more receiving such certificates.

Meetings of Interest

The Liberty Group of the W. M. U of Appomattox Baptist Association of which Mrs. T. L. Christian is the leader will hold special meetings next week as follows: Sunday, 11 A. M. and 3:30 P. M. Liberty Baptist Church. Monday, 3:30 P. M. Spout Springs Baptist Church; 8 P. M. Fisher Memorial. Tuesday, 11 A. M. Maple Grove; 3:30 P. M. Red Oak; 8 P. M., Hebron.

The regular business meeting of the group will be held at Liberty Church, Sunday afternoon at 3:30. Delegates are expected from all the churches in the group, reports will be made and business transacted. Rev. Dr. John Lowe, of China, a worldfamous missionary is expected to speak at all the meetings.

Mississippi Flood Relief

Mrs. Arthur Irby and Mrs. S. W. Sears report that so far every church which has turned in its collection had reached its right quota and some of them have doubled their quotas as requested by the government. They hope by next week to be able to report the amount given by each church.

Pamplin doubled its quota on the first call, the Baptist church at Spout Spring gave over doubls its first quota.

The three churches at Appomattox gave over their original quotas but when they subscribed we had not been asked for the larger amount.

Watch for next week's paper and see that your church is recorded as having reached its quota.

All money collected has been forwarded to Washington.

Rev. Clark Caldwell

Rev. Clark Caldwell, a splendid young man, a Baptist minister and pastor of the Baptist Churches at Saluda and Urbana, Va., died at his home at Saluda, Va., in the 30th year of his age, Friday, May 6th, 1927.

His death was caused by the accidental discharge of a gun which he carried while out hunting. His remains were brought here Saturday, May 7th, and after funeral services in Liberty Baptist Church, Monday, May 9th, interment was made in Old Concord Presbyterian Church near here.

Rev. Mr. Caldwell was a native of this county and the eldest son of M. C. and Susie Jones Caldwell. He was a graduate of the local High School, the University of Richmond and the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary at Louisville, Ky.

Soon after his graduation from the seminary in May 1926, he was married to Miss Thena White, of Atlanta, Ga., also a graduate of the Training School at Louisville and immediately settled on his field at Saluda, Va.

The funeral services were conducted from Liberty Baptist Church, this village, where he was converted, baptised, ordained and where he was settled on his own field.

The services were conducted by Rev. W. M. Thompson, pastor and the following ministers participated in the services: Revs. W. S. Royal, Lynchburg; S. B. Tucker, Vera; E. F. Burnette, Evergreen, Baptist ministers; D. G. Trent, Methodist, R. E. Redding and R. S. McNair, Presbyterian. Rev. C. E. Otey, pastor of the Disciples Church at Urbana, Va., was present at the grave and spoke words of appreciation and comfort.

Rev. Caldwell is survived by his wife, Mrs. Thena White Caldwell, his parents and the following brothers and sisters: Hubert, Jones, Mrs. Pearl Marshall, Mrs. Ruby Lewis, Evelina and Catharine Caldwell. All were present at the funeral services as were also Mrs. Caldwell's parents and brother from Atlanta, Ga.

The announcement of the untimely and tragic death of this noble young man came as a great shock to the people of this community, most of whom had known him from his boyhood. The funeral was largely attended, the floral tributes were numerous and beautiful and the sympathy of the entire community goes out to the bereaved and stricken parents, wife and other loved ones.

ROCKS NEWS

Mr. S. M. Ranson is still very ill, we are very sorry to say.

Why Firestone Dealers!

Serve You Better and Save You Money

WE know tires—how to select the best—how to help you take care of them, and get the most out of them. We sell Firestone Gum-Dipped Tires and Tubes—also Oldfield Tires and Tubes.

Both Firestone and Oldfield Tires are scientifically designed and manufactured by The Firestone Tire and Rubber Co. Mr. Harvey S. Firestone is President and active head of the Company and under his management many outstanding developments and improvements for economy, safety and comfort in tires have been made. He is the acknowledged leader in lowering tire costs and fought almost a lone battle to secure lower crude rubber prices from a foreign monopoly. He has saved, and is saving, millions of dollars every year for car owners.
